

CH

Switzerland

Your complete guide to moving abroad

Highest salaries and safety in Europe; the most expensive and one of the hardest to settle into.

CAPITAL

Bern

CURRENCY

Swiss franc

LANGUAGE

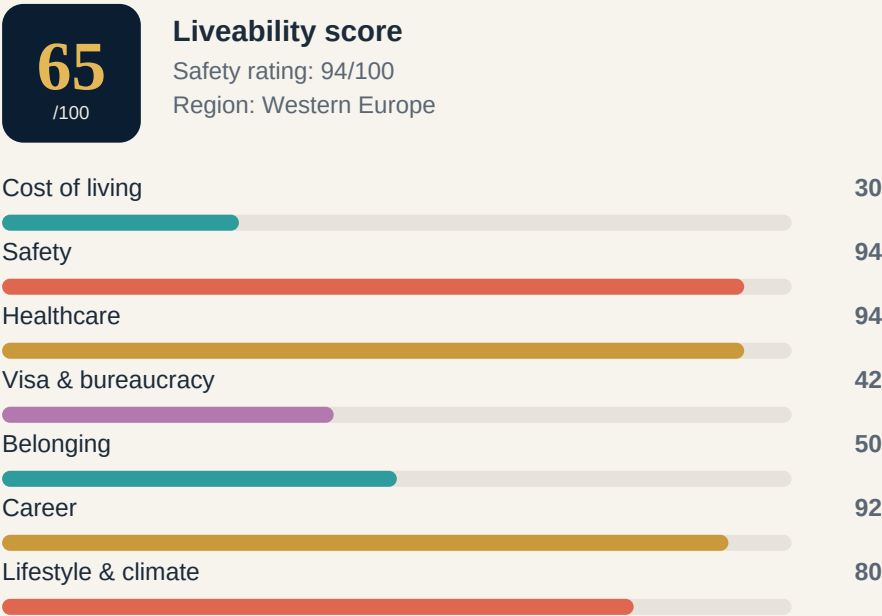

German, French,
Italian, Romansh

REGION

Western Europe

An honest snapshot

Switzerland is scored the same way as every country on The Global Expat Hub: seven weighted dimensions combined into one liveability score, kept independent of any advertising. Here is how it rates, and what that means for a move.

Scores are editorial estimates for planning, not legal, immigration or financial advice.

Cost of living & essentials

Worth of the dollar	$1 ≈ CHF0.81 (Swiss franc)
Utilities (85 m² flat)	$250/mo · electric, water, sewer, garbage
Home internet	$60/mo
Mobile / eSIM	$45/mo local · travel eSIM ≈ $25/10GB
Fuel	$2.00/litre
Doctor visit	$150 (private)
Emergency room	$800
Dental	$180 / $280
Cost to give birth	Mandatory insurance covers it; out-of-pocket $8,000–15,000 uninsured
Life expectancy	84 years
Unemployment	2%
Adult literacy	99%
Rural land	$50,000+ rural; foreign purchase tightly restricted (Lex Koller)

Connectivity, walkability & beauty

Wi-Fi & connectivity	94
Internet reliability	95
Walkability of cities	92
Beauty of cities	98
Air quality	86
Healthy food & safety	88
English day-to-day	High
Remote-work time zone	Full EU overlap, partial US (late)

Climate, law & getting around

Temperate with real seasons; cold snowy winters in the mountains, warm summers by the lakes. Ticino is Mediterranean.

1°C 34°F · Jan	10°C 50°F · Apr	20°C 68°F · Jul	11°C 52°F · Oct
Rainfall	about 1100 mm (43 in) a year
Snow	Heavy in the Alps, moderate in the cities
Severe weather risk	25/100 — Avalanches, alpine flooding and landslides; no hurricanes or major quakes
Time zone	CET (UTC+1) with DST; 6 hours ahead of New York
Drive on the	Right
Taxes (property)	Cantonal; ~0.1–0.3% in many cantons plus imputed rental income taxed
Taxes (income, local)	Cantonal and communal income tax often exceeds federal; varies 10–40% total
University	Near-free; ETH/public $1.5–3k/yr for all students

Official law & sources

Legislation: Fedlex (Federal law) — <https://www.fedlex.admin.ch>
US Embassy: <https://ch.usembassy.gov> · Wikipedia law overview available on the country page.

Visas & residence

- › Work permit (B) via employer, with quotas for non-EU citizens
- › EU/EFTA citizens have free movement
- › Lump-sum taxation residency for wealthy non-workers

Retiring in Switzerland

Retirees over 55 with strong ties and sufficient means can apply for residency in some cantons; costs are very high.

Schemes that attract expats

- › Lump-sum (forfait) taxation for wealthy non-working foreigners in most cantons
- › Near-free world-class universities
- › No capital gains tax on private securities
- › Retiree residence for over-55s with ties and means

Remote work & digital nomads

No nomad visa; non-EU permits tied to employer quota

Affordable Move

$13,900

You're moving on savings or a modest income, doing the paperwork yourself, and treating the first year as a test. You'll rent furnished, fly economy, ship almost nothing, and learn the language in group classes.

Ongoing monthly living for one adult on this tier: about $1550/month, plus utilities around $250.

First-year cost breakdown

Scouting trip flights	$700
one return trip, one to two people
Scouting trip stay	$1,250
two to four weeks in the neighbourhoods you might live in
Visa, permits & translations	$1,250
government fees, apostilles, translations; luxury adds an immigration lawyer
Relocation flights	$1,000
one-way, with extra baggage
Moving & shipping	$1,350
affordable: suitcases only; luxury: full container and white-glove
Housing deposit & first rent	$2,100
deposit plus first month, scaled to the local rental market
Furnishing & setup	$800
affordable leans on second-hand and furnished lets
Health insurance, first year	$1,850
basic international cover through to premium global plans
Language classes	$400
apps and group classes through to private tutoring
Local admin & first-month living	$1,950
registration, SIM, transport, groceries before income settles
Contingency	$1,250
10% of the total above

Total	$13,900
--------------	-----------------

Timeline

Decide & research	~8 wks
Shortlist two cities, read every section here, join local expat groups online, start a language app, open a savings tracker.
Paperwork	~10 wks
Gather documents, get apostilles and translations, apply for the visa yourself, arrange basic international health insurance.
Scouting trip	~3 wks
One trip, two to three weeks, in a furnished rental in your first-choice neighbourhood. Visit a supermarket, a clinic, a bus route and a coworking space.
Move	~4 wks
Sell or store what you can't carry. Two suitcases each. Book a one-month furnished rental to land in, then find a lease locally.
Settle	~8 wks
Register your address, get a SIM and a bank account, join group language classes, say yes to every meetup for two months.

Your affordable move checklist

Tick these off as you go. Everything here is scaled to this tier and to Switzerland's own prices, visa routes and timelines.

- | | |
|--|---|
| ☐ Two-city shortlist with a written reason for each | ☐ Pet paperwork started (if applicable) |
| ☐ Visa route chosen and requirements printed | ☐ Belongings reduced to two suitcases each |
| ☐ Passport valid 18+ months | ☐ Bank told you're moving; a no-foreign-fee card in hand |
| ☐ Documents apostilled and translated | ☐ Language app streak of 60+ days |
| ☐ Basic international health insurance quote | ☐ Group language class booked for week two |
| ☐ Six months of living costs saved in cash | ☐ Expat group memberships joined online |
| ☐ Scouting trip booked in a furnished rental | ☐ Contingency fund kept separate and untouched |
| ☐ Furnished landing rental for month one | |

Mid-range Move

$27,650

You have a steady income or remote job, want the move to be smooth rather than cheap, and will pay for help where it saves weeks. You'll ship some belongings, rent a proper apartment, and use a relocation agent for the hard parts.

Ongoing monthly living for one adult on this tier: about $2700/month, plus utilities around $250.

First-year cost breakdown

Scouting trip flights	$1,150
one return trip, one to two people
Scouting trip stay	$2,850
two to four weeks in the neighbourhoods you might live in
Visa, permits & translations	$1,800
government fees, apostilles, translations; luxury adds an immigration lawyer
Relocation flights	$1,650
one-way, with extra baggage
Moving & shipping	$4,500
affordable: suitcases only; luxury: full container and white-glove
Housing deposit & first rent	$3,850
deposit plus first month, scaled to the local rental market
Furnishing & setup	$2,300
affordable leans on second-hand and furnished lets
Health insurance, first year	$3,100
basic international cover through to premium global plans
Language classes	$750
apps and group classes through to private tutoring
Local admin & first-month living	$3,200
registration, SIM, transport, groceries before income settles
Contingency	$2,500
10% of the total above
Total	$27,650

Timeline

Decide & research	~6 wks
Shortlist two or three cities, read every section here, book a consultation with a relocation agent, start language lessons.
Paperwork	~8 wks
Documents, apostilles, translations; a lawyer or agent files the visa; comprehensive international health insurance arranged.
Scouting trip	~3 wks
Two to four weeks across two neighbourhoods, in an aparthotel or boutique hotel. View apartments with an agent, tour schools if needed.
Move	~5 wks
Partial shipment of furniture and personal items; sell the rest. Fly with pets in the hold or via a pet relocation service. Land in a serviced apartment.
Settle	~6 wks
Agent handles registration and utilities. Lease signed within a month. Weekly private language lessons; join clubs and classes, not just expat groups.

Your mid-range move checklist

Tick these off as you go. Everything here is scaled to this tier and to Switzerland's own prices, visa routes and timelines.

- | | |
|---|---|
| ☐ City shortlist scored against the sections here | ☐ Serviced apartment for the first month |
| ☐ Relocation agent or immigration lawyer engaged | ☐ Bank account and money-transfer service opened |
| ☐ Visa filed with a tracked timeline | ☐ Tax advice taken on residency timing |
| ☐ Comprehensive international health insurance in place | ☐ Private language tutor booked |
| ☐ Scouting trip: two neighbourhoods, apartment viewings booked | ☐ Driving licence exchange researched |
| ☐ School applications submitted (if applicable) | ☐ Furniture and appliances plan for what's not shipped |
| ☐ Moving quotes from three companies; partial shipment booked | ☐ Contingency fund at 10% of the plan |
| ☐ Pet relocation service booked | |

Luxury Move

$79,400

Time matters more than money. You'll hire a full-service relocation firm, an immigration lawyer and a buyer's or leasing agent, fly business, ship everything, and land in a home that's ready.

Ongoing monthly living for one adult on this tier: about $6200/month, plus utilities around $250.

First-year cost breakdown

Scouting trip flights	$3,700
one return trip, one to two people
Scouting trip stay	$9,900
two to four weeks in the neighbourhoods you might live in
Visa, permits & translations	$4,300
government fees, apostilles, translations; luxury adds an immigration lawyer
Relocation flights	$5,000
one-way, with extra baggage
Moving & shipping	$15,750
affordable: suitcases only; luxury: full container and white-glove
Housing deposit & first rent	$10,800
deposit plus first month, scaled to the local rental market
Furnishing & setup	$6,950
affordable leans on second-hand and furnished lets
Health insurance, first year	$6,800
basic international cover through to premium global plans
Language classes	$1,950
apps and group classes through to private tutoring
Local admin & first-month living	$7,050
registration, SIM, transport, groceries before income settles
Contingency	$7,200
10% of the total above
Total	$79,400

Timeline

Decide & research	~4 wks
Relocation firm briefed. Two private scouting itineraries prepared. Lawyer confirms the best visa route, including investor and talent options.
Paperwork	~6 wks
Lawyer files everything; you sign. Premium global health cover with medical evacuation. Tax structuring advice before you become resident.
Scouting trip	~2 wks
Private itinerary in a five-star or boutique property, drone and video previews of homes before you fly, viewings with a buyer's or leasing agent.
Move	~4 wks
Full container with white-glove packing and unpacking. Pets flown with a specialist. Home leased or purchased and furnished before arrival.
Settle	~4 wks
Relocation firm completes registration, utilities, schools, staff and vehicles. Private language tutor. Introductions to clubs and community.

Your luxury move checklist

Tick these off as you go. Everything here is scaled to this tier and to Switzerland's own prices, visa routes and timelines.

- | | |
|--|---|
| ☐ Full-service relocation firm engaged | ☐ Pet specialist booked door to door |
| ☐ Immigration lawyer engaged; visa route confirmed | ☐ School places confirmed |
| ☐ Tax and estate advice taken before residency | ☐ Vehicle purchase or lease arranged |
| ☐ Premium global health insurance with evacuation cover | ☐ Private language tutor scheduled |
| ☐ Private scouting itinerary with home previews | ☐ Banking and wealth management set up locally |
| ☐ Buyer's or leasing agent appointed | ☐ Household staff or property management if needed |
| ☐ Home secured and furnished before arrival | ☐ Contingency at 10%, held in local currency |
| ☐ Full-container shipment with insurance | |

Retirement Move

$40,250

You're moving for good on a pension, savings or both, and the priorities are different: a visa that doesn't depend on a job, healthcare you can rely on as you age, a tax outcome that doesn't shrink your income, and a community you'll actually enjoy. Comfort matters more than speed; certainty matters more than either.

First-year cost breakdown

Scouting trip flights	$1,150
one return trip, one to two people
Scouting trip stay	$2,850
two to four weeks in the neighbourhoods you might live in
Visa, permits & translations	$1,800
government fees, apostilles, translations; luxury adds an immigration lawyer
Relocation flights	$1,650
one-way, with extra baggage
Moving & shipping	$4,500
affordable: suitcases only; luxury: full container and white-glove
Housing deposit & first rent	$3,850
deposit plus first month, scaled to the local rental market
Furnishing & setup	$2,300
affordable leans on second-hand and furnished lets
Health insurance, first year	$3,100
basic international cover through to premium global plans
Language classes	$750
apps and group classes through to private tutoring
Local admin & first-month living	$3,200
registration, SIM, transport, groceries before income settles
Retirement visa, lawyer & pension certification	$3,350
immigration lawyer, apostilled pension letters, medicals, translations
Private health insurance, first year (age 60+)	$6,150
comprehensive cover until public-system access
Tax & estate advice	$1,950
double-taxation, pension treatment, wills
Contingency	$3,650
10% of the total above
Total	$40,250

Timeline

Decide & research	~10 wks
Shortlist two places using the retirement page, the healthcare and hospitals pages, life expectancy, climate and the 'by the numbers' section. Read the retirement-visa route and the tax scheme for pensioners. Talk to two retirees already there.
Paperwork	~14 wks
Pension or income letters certified and apostilled, police certificate, medical, birth and marriage certificates translated. Apply for the retirement or passive-income visa with a lawyer. Quote private health insurance for your age with pre-existing conditions declared.
Long scouting stay	~6 wks
Six weeks in the town you'd live in, in the season you'd like least. Register with a GP or clinic, visit the hospital, price a pharmacy run, join a club, test the walk to shops.

Your retirement move checklist

Tick these off as you go. Everything here is scaled to this tier and to Switzerland's own prices, visa routes and timelines.

- ☐ Retirement, pensionado or passive-income visa route confirmed with a lawyer
- ☐ Pension and income letters certified, apostilled and translated
- ☐ Police certificate and medical done within validity windows
- ☐ Private health insurance in place for age and conditions, until public access
- ☐ Prescriptions and medical records for a year, translated summary
- ☐ Tax residency date, pension treaty and estate advice taken
- ☐ Home-country pension paid to a local or multi-currency account
- ☐ Six-week scouting stay completed, including the hospital visit
- ☐ Home rented before buying; at least one year
- ☐ Local will and power of attorney prepared
- ☐ Registered with embassy or consulate
- ☐ Community found: club, faith group, volunteering or class
- ☐ Plan for care needs: home help, assisted living options and costs
- ☐ Return-trip fund kept for family emergencies
- ☐ Contingency at 10%, held in local currency

Getting there & the calendar

Main gateway airports

Zürich (ZRH), Geneva (GVA), Basel (BSL)

Low-cost carriers: easyJet (Geneva & Basel), Swiss (sales), Edelweiss

Basel-Mulhouse and Geneva are the budget gateways; Zürich for intercontinental.

Holidays & festivals

National day: Swiss National Day, 1 August.

- › Fasnacht in Basel (Feb/Mar)
- › Montreux Jazz Festival (July)
- › Sechseläuten in Zürich (April)
- › Locarno Film Festival (August)

BEFORE YOU GO

Three ways we can help

Search jobs for free

Our job board is free for everyone. Browse remote and in-person roles that hire foreigners, filter by country, and apply directly. Employers post for a flat fee; you never pay to look. Start at theglobalexpathub.com/jobs.

Follow us on social

Find us on Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, LinkedIn and TikTok for country guides, expat stories, drone films and launch news. It is the fastest way to hear what is new and to reach us with questions.

Be our featured story

Send us your best travel photo and your story of moving abroad. Each week we feature one expat on the site and across our channels. Follow us, then submit through the Stories page, or simply message us your pictures on social. It could be you next.

Ready to research your move?

This guide is a companion to the full, always-updated Switzerland page on The Global Expat Hub, where you'll find live travel advisories, official links, the job board, partner listings and more.

VISIT THE FULL GUIDE

theglobalexpathub.com/country/switzerland

All figures are editorial estimates for planning and were current at publication in 2026. Tax rules, visa schemes and prices change; verify before you rely on them. This guide is not legal, immigration, medical or financial advice.

THE GLOBAL EXPAT HUB

Find your place in the world.